Alexandra McGill joins Echelon Analytics in Dallas

DALLAS — Alexandra McGill joins Echelon Analytics' Dallas office.

Echelon Analytics, a recognized leader in expert witness services, economic and financial analysis, business consulting, and financial investigation, has welcomed Alexandra McGill to the firm's Dallas office as a senior consultant. McGill has built a strong reputation as a financial analyst. Her extensive background in finance and data analysis includes determining products' revenue, costs and profits, as well as analyzing profit and loss statements, balance sheets, and statements of cash flow.

McGill is also highly skilled in data analytics thanks to her review and analysis of large databases using SQL and SAP. Her ability to condense, recap and evaluate complex data to ensure accurate and appropriate analysis of findings will further enhance Echelon's commitment to excellence, which is evident on each commercial and intellectual property damages engagement.

Before joining Echelon Analytics, McGill was with a Fortune 500 company. She holds a BBA, summa cum laude, from Texas Tech University.
